

IT- and Information Security in the Research Process

Date: 2022-05-31, 10:00 – 11:30 | Karolinska Institutet
Venue: Biomedicum, Nils Ringertz, Solnavägen 9

Program:

- 10.00 Introduction
Stefan Larsson, Information Security, KI
- 10.05 The Research Process
Cecilia Martinsson Björkdahl, Research Support Office/Compliance Data Office, KI
- Research Support and Services available to you at KI
- 10.20 Security issues related to research projects – an overview
Fredrik Wallström, IT-Security Manager, KI & Stefan Larsson, Information Security, KI
- IT Security in brief - available tools, services and guidance
 - Information Security in brief – available tools and guidance
 - On data protection and handling of personal data
 - Protective security – a definition
- 10.40 Malign information influence
Tor-Björn Åstrand, The Swedish Psychological Defence Agency
- Malign information influence directed at Swedish interests – current situation and development trends
- 11.00 Desinformation and infodemic
Emma Frans, KI
- Desinformation, fake news and researchers as targets
- 11.30 Closing remarks

Sign up here infosec@ki.se

Karolinska
Institutet

IT- and Information Security in the Research Process

Target audience

Research group leader, Principal Investigator (PI) and the equivalent.

If you have any questions, you are welcome to contact the Information Security function at the Legal Office at KI who organizes the seminar.

Register for the seminar by e-mail to infosec@ki.se

For more information please contact infosec@ki.se

Welcome!

Karolinska
Institutet