

NOMINATION FOR THE 2023 WOLF PRIZE

INSTRUCTIONS FOR NOMINATING CANDIDATES IN ARTS

The Wolf Prizes in the sciences and the arts are awarded annually since 1978 to outstanding scientists and artists for their achievements for the benefit of humanity and brotherly relations among people, regardless of nationality, race, color, religion, gender, or political views. To date, 365 scientists and artists from all over the world have been awarded the prestigious Wolf Prize.

Every year, the Wolf Foundation awards four prizes in the Sciences and one prize in the Arts. Prize fields in sciences include Agriculture, Chemistry, Mathematics, Medicine, and Physics. Prize fields in the Arts include Architecture, Music, Painting and Sculpture. Each prize consists of a diploma and 100,000$. In the event of co-recipients sharing one prize, the honorarium is equally divided among them.

Previous Wolf Prize laureates in The Arts include Cindy Sherman, Anselm Kiefer, Louise Bourgeois, Marc Chagall, Jasper Johns, Gerhard Richter, Bruce Nauman, Lawrence Weiner, Eduardo Chillida, Claes T. Oldenburg, Michelangelo Pistoletto, Laurie Anderson, Olafur Eliasson, Rosemarie Trockel, and many more.
